

Conference „Philosophy in Informatics VII”

December 2, 2022 (Faculty of Philosophy at AMU, room 215)

13.00 – 13.10: opening of the conference (S. Leciejewski, P. Łupkowski, M. Szykiewicz)

13.10 – 14.00: Max Urchs, The computational comprehension of the world (opening lecture)

Session 1 (chairman of the session: Jerzy Stefanowski)

14.00 – 14.30: Mikołaj Morzy, Mitigating the ethical risks of large language models in machine learning research

14.30 – 15.00: Mariusz Wojewoda, Sztuczna inteligencja – problemy etyczne

15.00 – 15.30: coffee break

Session 2 (chairman of the session: Paweł Łupkowski)

15.30 – 16.00: Roman M. Krzanowski, Paweł Polak, The concept of AI paradigm

16.00 – 16.30: Jerzy Stefanowski, Discussion of the possibilities of implementing selected guidelines for trustworthy artificial intelligence

16.30 – 17.00: Dawid Wiśniewski, Wittgenstein embedded: large language models, their successes and limitations

17.00 – 17.30: Aleksandra Wasielewska, What attitudes toward social robots are expressed in natural language? Corpus Of Speech About Robots (COSAR) study

17.30 – 18.00: coffee break

Session 3 (chairman of the session: Paweł Polak)

18.00 – 18.30: Bartłomiej Chomański, Online consent and the epistemology of big data

18.30 – 19.00: Paweł Łupkowski, Straw Man Fallacy of the Complete Conversation System Claim against the Turing Test?

19.15 – 21.00: gala dinner

3 grudnia 2022 (online, MS Teams)

Session 4 (chairman of the session: Bartłomiej Chomański)

9.30 – 10.00: Marcin Rządeczka, Recent advances in the computational psychiatry. Theory-driven vs. data-driven approach

10.00 – 10.30: Paweł Staciewicz, Adam Kubiak, Hajo Greif, Was Turing a computational mechanist?

10.30 – 11.00: Łukasz Mściślawski, Contentless AI and creativity and responsibility

11.00 – 11.30: Kacper Książek, Poszukiwania Krzemienia Filozoficznego

11.30 – 11.45: closing of the conference (S. Leciejewski, P. Łupkowski, M. Szykiewicz)